

Santa Will be at Las Vecinas Christmas Ball

This Saturday night at nine o'clock, the ballroom of the Hermosa Biltmore will be under the spell of Christmas magic when Las Vecinas holds its second annual Christmas ball. Even Santa Claus has accepted the invitation to view the big Christmas tree, the roaring fire and the twinkling stars.

Mrs. William Whyte and Mrs. Jack Pomeroy report that their decoration committee is working hard and long on the "winter wonderland." Contributing to the decorations are Mrs. Quentin Johnson, Mrs. Jack Treacy, Mrs. Harvey Cole, Mrs. George Goggs, Mrs. Otto Suter, Mrs. Richard Gawne, Mrs. Paul Roettger, Mrs. Mildred Groven, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Spelman, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ferrel, Mrs. Bernard Beard, Mrs. Richard Cottrell and Mr. William Whyte. Mrs. Hans Helme, Mrs. J. L. Pearce, Mrs. John F. Webb, Mrs. Robert Donk and others will also help with the decorating.

Mrs. Frank Bowman, ticket chairman, announces that all members of Las Vecinas will be contacted personally, while others may buy their tickets at the door. The tickets will sell for $3.50 per couple, including tax.

Many Events Slated by Halldale PTA

A new member was added to the Halldale PTA board with the ratification of Mrs. L. W. Firli as the junior high school chairman, at the board meeting, held Wednesday, November 30.

Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, president, announced plans are now completed for a trip to the Helms Bakery to take place January 19. Schedule for the day includes a light luncheon, a tour through the bakery, and a white elephant game to be played in the bakery clubroom. Tickets for the trip may be purchased from Mrs. R. L. Armstrong, ways and means chairman. Mrs. L. W. Firli has graciously consented to take care of children for mothers who would otherwise be unable to attend.

The Bill of Rights will be the subject of the regular meeting to be held tomorrow afternoon, at the school, and Mrs. Ruth Adams will present a musical program, featuring the school chorus, the mother singers, and the orchestra.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. Amanda Bonwell, principal, acted as hostess at a pre-Christmas party for the board members. Gifts were exchanged and refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. V. W. Weise and Mrs. E. R. Martin.

SCOTTONS ENTERTAIN
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Scotton of 1438 El Prado have been entertaining as their house guests his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Christenson of Brightwood, Ore., who are vacationing in Southern California.

Set Meet for Novia Scotia Society 10th

Knott's Berry Farm at Buena Park has been selected as the setting for the annual Christmas party for Nova Scotians and former residents of other maritime provinces of Canada.

The annual party has been scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday, December 10. Interested persons are asked to contact W. A. Whitman, 1390 Wesley street, Pasadena, for reservations.

Yule Program to Highlight PTA Meeting

The 186th Street PTA will hold a regular meeting at 2 o'clock this afternoon. Kindergarten Children, dressed in "Angelic" costumes will sing Christmas songs and the Glee Club, under direction of the music teacher, Mrs. Kay Davis, will sing Christmas carols.

Hostesses will be Mmes. Leo Wagner, Howard Fletcher, Roger St. Dennis, Wilbur Attebery and Dean Wells.

Mrs. Samuel Dow, 186th Street president, and Mrs. James A. Gauley attended the monthly meeting of 10th District at Dorsey High School, Los Angeles.

Students Are Guests At Luncheon

Mrs. Richard P. Saunders entertained a group of women day students at Palos Verdes College at a luncheon in The Cottage.

Those present were Sally Child of Hermosa, Shirley Drey of Redondo, Anne Detzer and Joanne Goggin of Palos Verdes Estates, Elizabeth Thornton of Long Beach, Dorothy Whiting of Torrance, and Margaret Duthie, Terry McAuliffe, Constance Moseon, Nancy Pugh, Mara Regan, and Louise Simich, all of San Pedro.

It was a very pleasant affair and afforded the young women a chance to become better acquainted and to discuss the opportunities at the college.

Townsendites' Festivities
Torrance Townsend Club No. 1 will sponsor a pot luck supper featuring turkey as the main dish at their meeting tomorrow evening in Torrance Woman's clubhouse. Members will arrive promptly at 6:30 for the supper party which will precede an evening of dancing to begin at 8:15. Everyone is invited to attend these club affairs, it was announced.

There is no cosmetic for beauty like happiness.
